Report on One-Day seminar organized by the Department of Bengali in association with IQAC; Hooghly Women's College dated 26.09.2023

Department of Bengali organized a one —day seminar on "Satyajit Ray", the notable Indian filmmaker, graphic designer, writer. The life and works of Satyajit Ray is a very popular research topic among the researchers and many books have been published on him. Many research scholars have completed the thesis on his works as well. The speakers were famous "Satyajit Ray" researchers and academician. The first speaker was Dr. Kaushik Majumdar who is an eminent writer in Bengali literature. He spoke on the topic "Graphic designer Satyajit" and elaborated the works by Satyajit on book-cover designing, advertisement designing and illustrations. The second speaker was Dr. Sukhen Biswas; Professor; Department of Bengali, The University of Kalyani. His lecture was based on "The films of Satyajit Ray". Both the speakers inspired the undergraduate students to think about the aforementioned topic to opt as their research projects.

The seminar started with the inaugural lecture by the Principal; Hooghly Women's College; followed by the felicitation of the resource persons. After that the technical sessions started. After each talk, time was allocated for discussion and interaction between the audience and speakers. The whole programme was anchored by Dr. Biswajit Karmakar; Associate Professor, Department of Bengali, Hooghly Women's College.
